- From I-70 take Exit 203, Frisco / Breckenridge, and travel south on HWY 9 through Frisco and travel to Breckenridge.
- From the southern town limits of Breckenridge drive south 11 miles on HWY 9 to the summit of Hoosier Pass. Park to the right in the large parking lot with the Continental Divide sign.
- The trailhead is across Hwy 9 from the parking lot on the east side. Be careful while crossing road.

Trail Highlights:

- From the trailhead follow the route marked with blue diamonds as the trail heads north on an easily followed water diversion ditch.
- The Bemrose Trails contours around the hillside and crosses multiple drainages before it connects with the Woods Trail in Bemrose Creek drainage.
- Where the ditch intersects Bemrose Creek skiers can explore higher up or glide gently down to the Lower Access point.
- A series of blue diamond cross country ski routes are in the vicinity of Hoosier Pass on the east side. This area is call the "Bemrose Ski Circus" and has a series of inter-connecting cross-country skiing trails for all ability levels.
- In Europe the term "Ski Circus" is used for alpine areas which are connected by a network of lifts and trails, many times allowing the skier to ski from town to town.
