- From I-70 take Exit 205, Silverthorne / Dillon, and travel north on HWY 9 to the first traffic light, turn left onto Wilderndest Road. In 0.2 miles, turn left onto Wilderndest Road (again).
- As the road makes it first sharp hairpin turn to the right, turn left onto the dirt road and proceed 0.1 miles to the trailhead.

Trail Highlights:

- The trails pass through stands of lodgepole pine and aspen.
- The Lily Pad Lake Trail can be accessed from this trail system
- Nah-oon-kara is the Ute name for the land where blue water meets the sky. Too-pwech means rock and So-ov means Aspen tree. The Ute people were the original inhabitants of this area.

Important information:

- Mountain bikes may only be used on trails marked with a mountain bike symbol. If there is no sign, it is closed to that use.
- Upper Salt Lick and the Too-pwech trails are closed to mountain bikes since they enter the Eagles nest Wilderness Area where bikes are prohibited.
- Dog owners - Please be considerate of other trail users. Keep your dog in sight and when you encounter others, call the dog to your side until they pass. Use a stick to remove dog feces from the trail.
